Financial Reports

Financial secretary's report

We're continuing on track. No anomalies to report.

Wendy Stack speaks well of this group and their services. George asks about the extra cleaning and support costs. Dana Ramish asks about the seven keys they'd need. Brian suggests looking into a keyless entry system, maybe for next year's budget.

Maile and Don ask that we be sure we can cancel this at any time.

Motion 4. The Council approves the use of space at St. Paul by Bob Gannon for SAT training for high school students.

MOVED, SECONDED, TABLED.

They're still in the early stages of negotiation; we have a lot of questions about who his students are, what they should pay, and whether our missions align.

Retreat

We are joined by Taryn Weaver and Diane Kramer.

Mark Olson has posted several of the giant notepads from the retreat. Major topics from the retreat were:

- Communication. Ideas:
 - No need for intermediaries.
 - Everyone knows what's going on.
 - Place for ongoing discussions (web?).
 - Something like the Arlington mailing list?
 - Communication into Arlington.
 - A simple list of committees and a new directory.
- Participation, engagement, and governance.
Ideas on governance:
 - Revisit organizational structure.
- Ideas on participation and engagement:
 - Recruitment program
 - Key ministries—laity
 - Engagement inventory
- Education and formation. Ideas:
 - Recruit teachers
 - Alternate times for adult formation
 - Revisit the Sunday schedule

Dana Ramish gives a short report on the structural working group that's looking at governance, participation, and organization issues.

We then spend an hour talking about our mission, mission itself, education, Christian community. Pastor Goodman puts forward the idea that we're all here to "grow in faith," and a few members say that's not quite what they're here for.

Ideas from tonight for education:

- Lay down good soil for later strong emotional experiences (e.g., service trips).
- Experience Christian relationship
- Some of us grow in faith through inquiry and scholarship
- Learn how to grow in faith
- Opportunities for sharing faith
 - During the service
 - Messenger
 - Video interviews—maybe on the website maybe in the style of the "life gets better" videos?
- Photos of people in the congregation with short faith stories—say on one of the bulletin boards near coffee hour.

Marc closes the conversation by asking us to consider writing up our own faith stories and finding ways to act on this conversation.

Pastoral reports

Pastor Goodman reminds us that this is our last chance to thank C.J. for her time with us.

Meal

Pastor Goodman gathers us in prayer and leads communion at 9:25PM.

Respectfully submitted, Brian Sniffen

Next regular council meeting: 8 August 2011 at 7:30PM.
